1. Between 8 a.m. and 2 p.m. on 9 November 1953, 29 MiG-15s and 2 Yak-11s were parked at Deutsch Wagram (P 49/S 50) airfield. No flying was observed. There was a 6/10 overcast at an altitude of about 1,500 meters, a westerly wind of 8 km/h and visibility limited by haze over the southern portion of the field while it was good over the northern portion. The MiG-15s, except for 8 in front of the flight control station, were covered by tarpaulins. There was no activity at the field except for a little near the parked aircraft. Ambulance _____ tank _____ and jeep _____ all of them with drivers wearing black-bordered blue epaulets entered the field. One railroad tank car was parked on the spur track near the fuel dump.

the building. The "small building" was ungarded. Two trucks and 1 field kitchen were parked in the yard. Truck [redacted] with driver wearing black-bordered blue epaulets, entered the installation. During the time of observation, only three female soldiers with black-bordered blue epaulets entered the building. Forty-six soldiers with black-bordered blue epaulets were counted in the cantonment. However, source inferred from the smoke rising from the chimneys that the cantonment was more heavily occupied. Three trucks and 1 jeep were parked between the temporary buildings. Sixteen trucks, 4 tank trucks and 5 van-like trucks were parked in the area of the camp near the woods. No activity was observed at the camp.
